Cleone L. Reed

The Sacred Art of Clowning... and Life!

*When: Monday, February 20
7:00 p.m.*

*Where: Bandon Library
Sprague Room (refreshments served)*

*Reed was a mental health counselor when she became a clown in 1994.
So far, 166 people have been a clown for at least a day in response to her work.
Reed has six clown characters, each representing a different stage of her life.
She attributes her clown journey as a vehicle to transform her life.*

*Presented by Bandon Library Friends and Foundation.
