

Peace

Peace is like a waterfall
As it falls into the body of water
With tiny sparkles that reflect the sun.

Peace is like a tiny bird
Being taught how to fly from its mother.

Peace is like people
When they overcome their differences
Between themselves and others.

Peace is something we all need to learn
And pass on from generation to generation.