

Peace

Throughout this world...
Thoughts of fear, anger, despair, and war are about,
Everyday is lived...
In the shadows cast down on us by these thoughts,
Our longing for peace is desperate.

Negativity is...
A beast,
This creature wild,
Untamed,
Its claws...
Running deep into our souls,
We hope that by praying for peace it will come,
But as long as negativity controls us,
There is no room for peace,
True inner peace.

Not until we can truly love ourselves,
Love every part of us and...
Learn to accept both the admirable and undesirable traits we hold,
Can we finally be at peace with ourselves,
At peace with the world.
